Last updated: October 6, 2021

‘Inclusive GymBad’ (Badminton and Gymnastics) is one of seven Team Up programs taking place in Papua New Guinea, which focuses on increasing participation and awareness among disability players and women. Linda Pulsan, a powerlifting gold medalist at the Samoa 2019 Pacific Games, and Nelly Leva (Tokyo 2020 Paralympian) are key leaders of the programme, bringing their empathy and guidance as mothers, athletes, coaches and role model to the sports hall to inspire participants.
